Fiscal Note Version – New

Description

House File 2645 makes various changes to public employee collective bargaining. The Bill includes a provision that an act giving rise to a prohibited practice no longer needs to be considered willful to constitute a violation.

Background

The elimination of the willful conduct standard conforms with the standards established by the National Labor Relations Board.

Assumptions

There are few prohibited practice complaints filed with the Public Employment Relations Board annually.

Fiscal Impact

House File 2645 will have a minimal fiscal impact.
